Some key highlights.....

- Fewer homes sold in the 3rd Quarter (35) than in the 2nd Quarter (41). More Sold in Q2 2024 (49).
- 35 homes had 48 price reductions averaging -9.3%
- 47 New Listings compared to 40 same period last year
- 36 Units Pending compared to 37 same period last year.

What does all of this mean? The 3rd Quarter typically sees a lower number of unit sales than the 2nd Quarter, as the 2nd Quarter reflects the Summer Market which is historically quieter than the Spring Market. The key takeaway for the Quarter is that Average Days to Offer increased from 17 Days to 31 Days and number of Price Reductions and Percentage of the Price Reductions were noticeably up – with average price reductions pushing 10%. That shows a disconnect between Seller expectations and the market. However, there is a clear divide between homes that attract quick offers and those that sit on the market, making “Homes for Sale” data less reflective of actual market conditions. This highlights the importance of strategic pricing and strong presentation, as buyers are taking a more measured approach than before. While rates did dip to near 6.0%, they are back in the high 6% range, which is keeping some Buyers waiting for lower rates again since there were just teased. That 0.8% difference on $1M purchase with $800K mortgage is $400/month or $4,800/year. That’s real.
